Sir:

Applicants' petition to revive the above-referenced application from unintentional abandonment has been dismissed without prejudice. In a decision mailed on May 31, 2007, it was stated that although the petition included a proposed response to the Office action, because the most recent outstanding Office action was a final rejection, the amendment was not entered because it raised new issues for further consideration and/or search. Accordingly, the decision stated that a Request for Continued Examination was required.

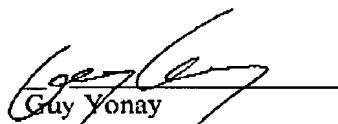

Accordingly, Applicant is hereby including a Request for Continued Examination and the appropriate fee in order for the amendment after final rejection to be entered into the file and considered by the Examiner in the case.

Based on the above, Applicant respectfully requests that upon reconsideration, the petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) be granted.
